"Do one thing every day that scares you."*—Eleanor Roosevelt

As the global financial crisis hits us deeper every day, we tend (well, I tend) to think a little bit philosophically - to wonder what tomorrow will bring and to imagine the future.

As I began to think about this, I stumbled across the Eleanor Roosevelt remark above.

And it got me thinking...

So to add a little fuel to the fire I mined a few presentations for more spurs of reflection forethought and inspiration. What emerged follows.

It is not a listing of "business quotes," though 100% are applicable to business.

It is not purely a set of "motivational" or "inspirational" quotes though most are in some sense motivational and inspirational.

This list of quotes is simply there to help you think differently in tough times, to realise that nothing is impossible...your future is in your hands, now, how do you really want that to look...?

Attributed to Theodore Roosevelt. Ack DC

A man approached JP Morgan, held up an envelope, and said, "Sir, in my hand I hold a guaranteed formula for success, which I will gladly sell you for $25,000." "Sir," JP Morgan replied, "I do not know what is in the envelope, however if you show me, and I like it, I give you my word as a gentleman that I will pay you what you ask." The man agreed to the terms, and handed over the envelope. JP Morgan opened it, and extracted a single sheet of paper. He gave it one look, a mere glance, and then handed the piece of paper back to the gent. He then paid him the agreed-upon $25,000.

The Paper read:

1. Every morning, write a list of the things that need to be done that day.
2. Do them.
